The New Westminster Delegate to England. The good people of New Westminsterthat is a part of them-have done the deed. They have appointed Mr. Malcolm Cameron their delegate to England. He is the "Star-inthe-East" whom the wise men of New Westminster have so long been looking for-nine months to our certain knowledge. He is to guide them to a political millennium. He is to guide them to a savior in a resident governor and raise the price of town lots in New Westminster. It is wonderful in our eyes that the Columbian and Press, who see so much statesmanlike ability and diplomacy in the distinguished senator, that they do not apostr o phise him thus:

"Bright star! Fair speck!
That callest all the stars to duty,
That gleam'st to deck
The cffulgent West in Orient beauty"— Thou art our delegate! Not one of these literary luminaries nor their political satellites seem to realize the fact that anciently the "Star-in-the-East" was a Wandering Star, and that the modern political stur that is so soon to illuminate Downing street is not a fixed star. But is one of those erratic bodies that describe irregular orbits, so erratic that possibly the Astronomer Royal of Col. Moody's dilettante corps could not describe its path-nor predict with certainty its return. Cometary bodies, according to popular notions, are always the precursors of commo-tions. In the present instance the popular notion appears to be true. For the world of New Westminster has not alone been excited from centre to circumference. Our atmos from centre to circumlerence. Our atmosphere has been penetrated by the star's tail, and thirty-eight of our citizens carried away to the Mayor's palace. A wandering star may fitly represent some people; but never do we recollect one that revolved around three centres, or even two—for instance, around Canada, British Columbia, and Vancouver Island tres, or even two—for instance, around Canada, British Columbia, and Vancouver Island There is something very unnatural about such an hypothesis, not to say un-astronomical. It is even unscriptural, for Holy Writsays: "No man can serve two masters—he will either love the one or hate the other." Wo might add there is something very unpolitical also. For we cannot see how Mr. Cameron, for instance, could represent the gentlemen who got up the meeting at New Westminster—how he could urge their "rights in accordance with the spirit of our (their) previous petitions, memorials, and remonstrances," and at the same time represent this colony, or the real interests of both colonies. The spirit of those documents are adverse in some respects to the material interests of this colony. So if Mr. Cameron's tongue were hung in the middle, and our end of it retained with £500, and the British Columbia end retained to the same amount, it would be impossible to reported bether. end of it retained with £500, and the British Columbia end retained to the same amount, it would be impossible to represent both clients fairly. Just imagine a lawyer pleading both sides of a case before the same judge and the self-same jury! If the people of Vancouver Island and the British Columbian delegationists composed the two sections of the audience, would there not be heard occasionally—not always—a groan of disapprobation with a shout of applause? How apparent it must be then to every sensible person that, if we consented to endow sensible person that, if we consented to endow Mr. Cameron with the authority of a delegate from this colony to peddle our grievauces through London, it would be like following an ignis fatous into a swamp. We might be swamped before we were aware of it. If Mr. Cameron possesses any of the genius of a statesman, he can never endorse the antistatesman, he can never endorse the anti-union sentiments of a small knot of men in New Westminster. He has already praised our free port system. He has expressed sentiments favorable to union. Pray, how can he carry out the spirit of certain me-morials that denounce union? We deny that British Columbian sentiment on the that British Columbian sentiment on the union question is expressed by the prominent getters-up of the New Westminster meeting. Again, the most better denunciations of Gov. Douglas are expressed in certain memorials of the Delegationists of New Westminster. Yet we find Mr. Cameron praising that gentleman! That is very like the goodlord and good-devil doctrine. The object—the expressed object of the New Westminsterians is to turn out Governor Douglas; yet they select a delegate who Doughs; yet they select a delegate who admires (!) the man whom they politically hate—a delegate to turn out the man whom he admires. Holding sympathics not in he admires. Holding sympathies not in unison with his constituents, is a novel way to illustrate the true representative character. If that be representation, let's have none of it. It is too much like embracing a person affectionately merely to bury a dagger in his bosom. It reminds us of a class of politicans called "ratters"—that is, moral patriots for sale at a reduced price. Everything takes regards as the company. his Doson. It reminds us of a class of politicans called "ratters"—that is, moral patriots for sale at a reduced price. Everything taken together, it appears Mr. Cameron wishes to stand well with everybody—this Island, the mainland, a few New Westminsterians, Governor Douglas, and Upper Canada. He is coquetting with all. How sympathetic and how generous to to divide his affections among so many! loving the old lady of sixty, and the virgin of sixteen; plighting his troth to each and all. We have no hesitation in stating that Mr. Cameron would be an acquisition to either Colony, were he to become a resident. His age and experience qualify him eminently for a new country. But till he does become a resident, he cannot be our delegate with our consent. We would just as soon think of secking advice of a quack-doctor rather than of a regular graduate of medicine, as to endorse as a delegate one who had no habitation or local status in this country in preference to one who possesses them. The Columbian's rant, in its last issue, falls harmlessly on one beat Libits in the second of the medical property and the property of the political property.

Bay land claims in British Columbia? True British Columbians never desert, never skulk out of sight when there is a public duty to perform—more particularly when it is a question of delegate or no delegate.

MINING NEWS. The mining news is mixed. Some rich new strikes are reported on Williams, and several claims heretotore paying moderately have began to yield the cro in great plentitude. The Point claim, above Steele's has proved very rich. Abbott's is weakening a little. Adams' and Cunning-ham's are doing as well as ever. The owners of the rich claims will leave about the 20th of the present month for Victoria, with their treasure. They will form a large party, and woe to the high-waymen who may attack them. Several claims on Lightning and Antler have been abandoned by their owners, who found the been abandoned by their owners, who found the amount of capital required to reach the hidden treasure too heavy for their limited purses. The Montgomery claim, on Antler, is paying an ounce a day to the hand, with a prospect of doing better in future. A claim below the town on the same creek, yields 40 ounces a day to the company.

Snow falls daily on Williams, Antler, and Lightning, and the country bas assumed a wintry appearance.

MURDERS AND ROBBERIES.

Another horrible murder has just come to light near Antler Creek. On the 12th September, a Cyprian known as Johanna Maguire, started from Williams Creek with $53000 in dust in her possession, for the purpose of bailing out her "man," who was in prison at the Forks of Quesnelle. She reached Antler on the same day, and getting drunk there spoke of the object of her journey. The next morning she left Antler and reached an hotel seven miles beyond. There she rested until afternoon, and again continued on in company with an unknown man. She was never afterwards seen alive; but four days subsequently, her corpse is reported to have been discovered in the bushes near the trail, with the throat cut from ear to ear, and the dust gone. nd the dust gone.

A homicide was committed at Williams Luke on and the dust gone.

A homicide was committed at Williams Luke on the 23d ult. A man named Dan or Dave Gilebrist, formerly a police officer in Sacramento city, Cal., kept a monte table in one of the hotels at the Lake, and, on the evening of the day stated, a difficulty occurred between him and another gambler who was accused of picking up a "sleeper," or money which no one claimed, from the table. The amount was $10. The latter went for his revolver. Gilchrist saw his movement and quickly drew and cocked his Colt's in advance of the other, and was about to shoot him, when a friend grasped his arm and swang him around. The pistol unfortunately went off at the same instant, and the ball entered the forehead of a miner who was standing by and passed entirely through his head; spattering his brains on the floor. The poor fellow lived about twenty minutes. An attempt was made to arrest Gilchrist, but he again cocked his weapon and threatened to visit any person who dared to touch him with instant death. With his pistol pointed at the crowd, he then backed out of the house and fled to the woods. The next day, twenty Indians, with instructions to take him dead or alive, were started on his trail. The victim was named Gurney or Garnett, said to be an Ameri-

the house and fied to the woods. The next day, twenty Indians, with instructions to take him dead or alive, were started on his trail. The victim was named Gurney or Garnett, said to be an American on his way down from Williams Creek. An inquest had not been held at latest accounts.

The Indians have gone into the "sticking up" business, as they term highway robberies in Australia. On the 12th three redskined rascals stopped a miner near Mud Lake and went through his pockets. The man, fortunately or unfortunately, was "strapped," and was allowed to proceed without injury. A few days thereafter a man on a mule was fired at by one of a party of three Indians, between Beaver Lake and the Parks. The Indians fired three shots, and one ball taking effect in the calf of the white man's leg, so enraged him that he leapt from his animal, and, scizing a club, made at the scamps, when they turned and incontinently sed into the woods.

A large number of cut-threats and theyes are reported on their way down from the mines, and it is feared that they will make Victoria their rebiding place during the coming winter.

Dogs in Restaurants .- One of the res taurants contains this notice-" Gentlemen are requested to leave their dog or dogs outside of this restaurant, or tie them up in the yard, to save them a good thrashing." This notice is sensible and just, if not exactly in notice is sensible and just, if not exactly in keeping with the rules of Lindley Murray. The number of dogs daily to be encountered in most of the restaurants scratching fleas from their mangy hides or lolling out their tongues in expectation of tid-bits from the gnests, is disgusting. Some of these curs visit the hotels to prowl beneath the tables and pick up scraps as regularly as clock-work. They seem to know the time o'-day at which meals are served, and are ever to be found thrusting their noses in uncomfortable proxthrusting their noses in uncomfortable prox-imity with the dishes. To say nothing else, the custom of taking dogs into restaurants is a dirty one and we are glad to find one restaurateur possessing pluck enough to insist upon their being kept from his premises. We hope that others will follow the example. A siathful dog is, of course, a treasure, but let him be ever so fine an animal, his owner has no right to take him where he will render himself a missage to ethers. self a nuisance to others.

SUPPOSED TO BE LOST .- The sloop Louis Morris is thought to have been lost about three weeks since, while on her way to this port from Stickeen River, with a number of port from Stakeon River, with a humor of passengers. She was in company with the John Dickson off Cape Caution, 270 miles north of Nanaimo, when a great gale arose, and she was lost sight of; and, not having arrived here, it is believed that she went down, with all on board. On the same night a canon containing five men was lost sight. a canoe containing five men was lost sight of, and it is believed that they too are lost.

"The Fust Man to Complain."

Three or four of the wayside inns between Lillooet and the Forks of Queenelle River are well kept, and a "square" meal may always be found on their tables. The remainder of the houses on the same road are maintained in a disgracefully filthy condi-tion, and the food served up is generally of the meanest description. Complaints from travelers to landlords of being compelled to pay from $1.25 to $1.50 a meal for such mean accommodations are of frequent occur-rence; but they are met with the stereo-typed reply of "Cap, if you don't like the way we get up things, you'd better go on to the next house." Rather consoling advice this must be to the travel-worn wayfarer, when he inquires and learns that the "next house" he inquires and learns that the "next house" is fifteen miles distant. He generally is content to swallow his "peck of dirt" at one content to swallow his "peck of dirt" at one gulp, and grumble no more.

A few days ago, several miners on their way down to Victoria stopped for the night at one of these houses of entertainment, and called for supper. The landlord, whose face and hands were remarkably dirty, busied himself in setting a genut wash on a rude himself in setting a genut wash on a rude. and mands were remarkably dirty, businessed in setting a scanty meal on a rude table, first taking care to place on the table a greasy table-cloth. When all was ready, his guests were invited up to "feed." Observing the table-cloth, one of the men called the landlord's attention to its condition.

"What's the marter want!!" sharply asked Boniface.

"Why, it's as black as ink, and as dirty as your face," returned the other.
"Some folks is hard to suit," retorted the Industry.

The miner drew the palm of his hand across the cloth, and exhibiting a black mark which was left upon it to the angry eyes of the host, said "you ought to be ashamed of yourself for spreading so nasty a cloth on a table."

Boniface jumped-so enraged was he at the "impudence" of his guest—and he shouted, "Say, look-ahere, Cap, I'm clean to suit most folks, and if you ain't satisfied, take your hat and git. There's that ere table-cloth, it's been good for others, and it's good enough for you. You ought to be thankful that you enjoy the luxury of eatin' off of a table-cloth anyhow, even it it is a little siled. There ain't another house on the hull road between here and the Forks where you kin git a meal's victuals for a dollar and a half, and no extry charge for a table-cloth. If you was Govnor Douglas or Judge Bigbug, you couldn't make more fuss. I got that ere table-cloth from Victory on purpose—five or six hundred men have eat off of it, and you're the fust man that ever complained of its ben' divy-the very fust." The miner said no more. If five or six hundred men had eaten their meals from "that ere cloth" without growing sick at the stomach, he felt that he, only one out of so many, would be almost criminal to urge any further objection; so he finished his meal in silence.

Whereas, it is necessary to make regulations for, and to prevent the commission of nuisances in the Harbors of Vancouver Island.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, on Her Majesty's behalf, by and with, &c., as follows: The Harbormaster of every Harbor or Port in the Colony of Vancouver Island may and he is hereby required to give directions for regulating the time at which, and the manner in which every vessel shall enter into, go out of, or be in or at any Harbor, Pier, or Wharf, within the jurisdiction of such Harbormaster, and the position, mooring, or unmooring place of, and removing of every vessel whilst therein; for removing unservice-able vessels, and other obstructions from the Harbor, Pier, or Wharf, and keeping the same clear, and for regulating the use of fires and lights within the vessels in the Harbor, or in or at any Pier or Wharf.

Public Meeting at New Westmineter to send a Delegate to England.

Pursuant to a requisition from the people a public meeting was called by the Mayor on Tuesday evening at the "Hyack Hall," for the purpose of appointing a delegate to represent our grievances, and promote our general interests at homo. The attendance was large and respectable, and the utmost unanimity and good feeling characterised the proceedings throughout. The Mayor having stated the object of the meeting, called upon the people to appoint a Chairman, whereupon Mr. Armstrong was unanimously voted the Chair, and Mr. Hall consenting to act as Secretary, the business of the evening commenced by the Chairman making a few perlinent remarks, after which the following resolutions were passed seriatim:

Moved by Mr. Homer, seconded by Mr. Wm. Johnstone, That in the absence of any properly organized Government for this Colony, and in view of the facts that the rights of the people have been ignored, and the best interests of the Colony sacrificed, it is incumbent upon us to send a delegate to England to represent our grievances, and obtain for us those institutions which are the common birthright of every British subject.

Moved by Mr. Holbrook, seconded by Mr. Cormack, and Resolved, That this meeting believe that the Hon. M. Cameron, who is now amongst us, its pre-eminently qualified to promote our interests at home, and we hereby solicit his valuable services, and appoint him as our delegate to England, for the purpose of urging our rights in accordance with the spirit of our previous petitions, memorials and remonstrances.

Moved by Mr. Ramage, seconded by Mr. Cormack, and Resolved, that Messrs. Robson and Hall be appointed a Committee to prepare an address forthwith for presentation to the Hon. M. Cameron, and that Messrs. Holbrook and Homer be a deputation to wait upon that gentleman and invite him to this meeting.

be a deputation to wait upon that gentleman and invite him to this meeting.
The following address was prepared, submitted to the meeting, and unanimously adopted:

To the Hon. Malcoln Cameron.

Stu, —Your visit to this infant Colony has afforded us neuch satisfaction, evincing as it does a deep interest in the rise and progress of the country; and we trust the sojourn amongst us of one possessing so much practical Colonial experience, may be productive of permanent good, in directing and encouraging these who, having been thrown hurrically tagether from various portions of the British Dominions, are struggling to build up a Colony on the shores of the Pacific.

You have doubtless long since learned that there can be neither contentment nor any considerable degree of prosperity in a Colony destitute of those liberal forms of Government so fully recognized, and almost universally enjoyed at the tute of those liberal forms of Government so fully recognized, and almost universally enjoyed at the present day by the descendants of Britons, but which have been systematically denied to us. Well assured of the high abilities you possess to discharge successfully the duties of a representative, both from your experience in rubble life and your intimate acquaintance with influential public men in England, we are desirous to secure your services in such capacity, to represent our position and circumstances to the Imperial authorities; that you may urgo upon the Colonial Minister the necessity of immediately appointing a resident Governor of talent and experience, free from all conflicting personal interests, surrounded by men from among ourselves, cleeted by the people, who will work out a system of Government more truly connecting personal interests, surrounded by men from among ourselves, elected by the people, who will work out a system of Government more truly British, and better suited to the state, habits and feelings of the Anglo Saxon race, and analogous to those now so happily working in our sister Colonies in the East, which have been found at once to promote the happiness of the people, develope the resources of the Colonies, and cement and perpetuate their loyalty and attachment to the British Crown.

Should you find it convenient to meet our wishes, you will secure the lasting gratitude of a struggling and energetic but oppressed people; and in securing to the British Crown the fealty of many loyal subjects, you will be instrumental in building up a country that will yet do honor to the British name.

New Westminster, Sept. 39th, 1862.

The Hon. M. Cameron was introduced at this stage of the proceedings by the Mayor and Mr. Homer, and the address read and presented to him by Mr. Hall, to which the hon, gentleman replied in a brief speech, of which the following is a summary:

by Mr. Hall, to which the hon, gentleman replied in a briof speech, of which the following is a summary:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:—I have received your very flattering address, in which my abilities are overrated, and I fear my influence too highly estimated. But for the hand of death recently laid on one—I might say the noblest of earth's honored ones—whom I nad the high honor to call friend, I could have hoped in England to have had strong influence. I allude to Major Gen. Bruce. I and all Canada can now but mourn the loss of our best and warmest friend, whose mortal remains now lie in the vault of the Abbey Church of Dumfermline. Through him, however, I have acquaintance with the Colonial Minister, and will for his sake, no doubt, be courteously received upon whatever mission I may be sent. And, therefore, while I teel that I do not deserve the compliments you pay my abilities and influence, yet, recling that I have the will and energy to plend for and press such just expectations as yours, I accept the important mission, and shall do all I can do fulfil it faithfully, satisfied that if I succeed, the development of the mineral, commercial and agricultural wealth of British Columbia will well reward my efforts. I have upon other occasions expressed the high opinion I centertain of the ability and character of your Governor. But even were he an angel from heaven he would require to be an omnipresent one in order to be informed correctly of every detail in every department in this large Colony. It has been satisfactorily demonstrated that representative government is the best suited to any enlightened people. You have

Tie Election of Town Surveyor.

T: • Election of Town Burveyor.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST—SIR:—Much as I dislike my name appearing in the public journals, I feel it my duty, in vindication of my own character and position, as well as to disabuse the minds of my friends, to state the true reason why I was not returned by a large majority as Town Surveyor, viz.: that I with many others, and councillors included, voted for Mr. Gibbs the colored candidate. The Mayor himself told me after that election that he would do all in his power to prevent me or any other person being returned who voted for a colored man (thus admitting that the politics of the candidates were more essential than their fitness for office.) I have since understood that he had made a similar statement to two members of Assembly, viz.: that he would mark the man why daved to vote for a colored man. And to show how consistent he is, he told me he intended voting for and returning a colored candidate to the House of Assembly next year; and yet he stigmatizes me for doing what he himself proposes to do at the next general election. The Mayor has adopted a strange method indeed of guarding the interests of the community, and efficiently and faithfully discharging the duties of the office he has sworn to do, in sacrificing public duty to the gratification of personal revenge.

There appears to be something not very victorious in the fact that the Mayor, said to be so very popular, should not be able to command a majority in the Council, notwithstanding the strenuous exertions made by his party; and I rejoice in this opportunity of thanking Councillors Reid, Copland and Searby for their unwavering support. I would ask, in all fairness, why such a corrupt and un-English system of balloting is allowed to be perpetrated in this Colony? The result of the first ballot was: Green I, Tiedeman I, Stephens I, and there the matter/should have ended; and, according to the ruling of the Mayor that evening, that all those having one vote were to be crossed off, the result of the matter, should ha

SAINSEVAIN'S WINE RITTERS; OR California Vermouth—These Bitters are obtain ing a wide-spread celebrity in all parts of the State.
It is sufficient evidence of their great merit to observe the large quantities shipped by our principal Wine Morchanis to every part of the country
Sainsevain, however, like all other manufacturers of new and valuable articles; has to contend with unscruptions parties, who are introducing a spurious mixture purporting to put up in the state style of outles, labels, etc., so as to pass for the Sainsevain brand. We call attention to this fact so that our citizens may be upon their guard, and that when they ask for Sainsevain's Bitters, see that they get them. As pure Wine is destined to drive from use all alcoholic decoctions, so these Bitters will soon take the place of the adulterated preparations which now flood our market. Those desiring a pure and agreeable tonic should try Sainsevain's Wine Bitters or California Vermouth.

We have appointed W. H. OLIVER, of Victoria,
V. I., to be our Sole Agent for the British Possessions.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

Thirty years of experience has demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt, that JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT excels every other remedy for the cure of ASTHMA.

COUGHIS AND COLDS,
CROUP AND WHOOPING COUGH,
SPITTING OF BLOOD,
AND ALL PULMONARY COMPLAINTS.
While many other Remedles have been lauded and extolled, and achieved a temperary reputation, JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT has continually increased in popularity until now there is scarcely an inhabitable part of the globe where it is not used and highly appreciated. The following are a few of the many Certificates received:

Dr. W. W. WINTER, of Milledgeville, Ill., writes

It is with great pleasure that I can recommend you EXPECTORANT to those suffering from Bronchial Affe-tions, having used it with the most satisfactory results. Mr. NATHAN PENNYPACKER, of Upper Uwchland, Chester outly, Pa., Says.

Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and the treatment of several skillful physicians proving of no avail, I commenced the use of your EXPECTO-RANT. After taking it for about three months I found myself entirely cured.

Rev. John Dowling, D. D., Pastor of the Berean Baptist Church, N. Y., writes: I have long known the virtues of your EXPECTORANY, and frequently tested them on myself and family, when antitoted with COUGHS or CoLDS. I believe it to be one of the best remedies ever discovered for these maladies.

Mr. Reading Dory, of Twenty Mile Stand, Warre air, BEADING DOTY, of Twenty Mile Stand, Warren country, Ohlo, says.

Recently I had an attack of ASTIMA, the most distress, ing of all diseases, and yesterday atternoon, after taking a short ride, I returned home almost unable to breathe. Through the persuasion of my wife I was led to try your EXPECTORANT. The first dose gave instant relier, and after the out-off-dose lepioyed a refreshing sleep, and the persuasion had better health than for two years past.

Rev. J. J. Walsh, Missionary of the Presh. Board a uttegurh, Northern India, says: Your EXPECTORANT was the means under Providence of curing a case of INCHIERT CONSUMPTION, which had been pronounced incurable by competent medicamen.

Not long since, a child of mine had a very violent and distressing attack of CROUP, which must have proved fatal had not immediate relief been obtained. I commenced giving your EXPECTORANT, and within threequarters of an hour the child had taken six teaspoonsful, breathed with perfect ease, a cure within that time having been effected.

Rev. Rurus Barcock, D. D., formerly President of Water ville College, Maine, writes:

I have recommended Dr. Born and the property of the Expectation of the Expectation of the Expectation of the Expectation of the most respectable of the regular practitioners of medicine; and to not hesitate to commend them as a valuable addition to our materia medica, and a safe as well as eminently beneficial remedy for the diseased. DAVID TURNER, of Cassville, Huntington county, Penn.

writes:
My son, aged nincteen years, was confined to his bed for for three months, his disease being pronounced by the attending physician to be CONSUMPTION. Failing to obtain any relief from the freatment he had been undergoing, I procured for him JAYKYE KENETCHORAYT, and through its use he has been entirely restored to health.

Mr. Joan Henry, of Burlington, Bradford county, Penn ylvania, says:

For two years, my son was afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION, and during this period was unable to labor. Being finally induced to try your EXPECTORANY, he was completely cured after taking ten bottles, and he is now able to work every day. Mr. Pagston Ewing, Laconte, Harrison county, Indiana

writes:
Being afflicted with BRONCHITIS for the space of three years, to such an extent that I was obliged to relinquish the teaching of Vocal Musle, and failing to obtain any relief from the physicians whom I consulted, I gave the EXPECTORANT a trial. After using it for a few weeks I was very much relieved; and by its continued use my threat is now ent rely clear of any disease.

HEALTH FOR A SHILLING Holloway's Pills.

Headaches, Bile, Loss of Appetite, and Lowness of Spirits. These Pills require no interruption of business or pleasure; they act mildly on the bowels, strengthen the stomach, and promote a healthy action of the liver, whereby they purily the blood, cleans the skin, brace the nerves, and invigorate the while system. They effect a truly wonderful change in debilitated constitutions, as they create a healthy appetite, correct indigestion, remove bile, giddiness, headaches, and pulpitation of the heart.

Workness and Pability.

Weakness and Debility.

Weakness and Debility.

In cases of debility, languor, and nervousness generated by excess of any kind, whether mentat or physical, the effect of these l'ills is in the highest degree bracing, renovating and restorative. They drive from the system the morbid cause of disease; re-establish the digestion, regulate all the secretions, brace the nervous system, raise the patient's spirits, and bring back the frame to its pristine health and vigor. They increase the appetite, while they secure perfect digestion to all ordinary food, and release the invalid from restraint in diet.

A Word to Females. A Word to Females.

A Word to Females.

There are two periods, especially in Woman's life, which require for safe passage, judgment and attention. Irregularity is apt at those critical times to take place, and to lay the toundation of future disease. These Pills, safe in action, and effective in result, should be taken at certain periods, and the issue will be marvellous both to the young and the middle aged. They prevent nervousness, hysterics, dropsy, and a host of similar serious disorters, by expelling all impurities from the system, therefore none should ver be without them. Coughs, Colds, and Asthmas,

Crughs, Colds, and Asthmas,
No medicine will cure colds so quickly as these Pills, when of long duration or settled on the chest, or even though it has assumed the first stage of asth ma, they may be relied on as a certain and never failing cure, particularly if the Ointment be well rubbed into the chest and thront night and morning. It this catch the eye of any asthmatical person so bad as even not able to lie down in bed, let him well use these two preparations for only a week, and the reult will be marvellous. Blood to the Head--Diseases of the Heart.

More persons die suddenly from diseases of the Heart.

More persons die suddenly from diseases of the heart than the unlearned suppose: in such complaints, the bowels should always be kept well open, as also where there is a tendency of blood to the head. These celebrated Pills purify the blood in an extraordinary manner, and should be taken in copious doses when such symptoms occur, taking care not to overload the stomach; by this means all danger is quickly averted.

Children's Complaints.

Children's Complaints.

It is not generally known, but such is the fact, that children require medicine oftener than their parents, Three-fourths of the children die before they attain the age of eight years. Let mothers, then, be wise, and give to their children small doses of these invaluable Fills once or twice every week, in such quantity as may not gently upon the system twice in the twenty-four hours. For infants, a Pill may be crushed and given as a powder in a little water. The gross humors that are constantly floating about in the blood of children, the forerunners of so many complaints, will thus be expelled, and the lives of thou sands saved and preserved to their parents.
